Here is a basic quilt block design that comes with 3 variations. An early version of this block is the first "in-the-hoop" quilt block that I designed. I'm not aware of what the proper name of this pattern is, but Diamond Squared seemed appropriate. I created a patriotic-themed bed runner as the included project, but there are endless possibilities with this block pattern just by selecting different color themes.

Center Square
CQB-DS1a 4.9in x 4.9in
CQB-DS1b 5.9in x 5.9in
CQB-DS1c 7.9in x 7.9in

Center Triangles
CQB-DS2a 4.9in x 4.9in
CQB-DS2b 5.9in x 5.9in
CQB-DS2c 7.9in x 7.9in

Center Stripes
CQB-DS3a 4.9in x 4.9in
CQB-DS3b 5.9in x 5.9in
CQB-DS3c 7.9in x 7.9in

My favorite aspect of quilting is the selection of fabric. Every quilt block pattern has endless possibilities just with the choice of fabrics. The patriotic color theme is transformed into a totally different look in this example.

Here is the third installment of "Classic" quilt blocks – the Pinwheel design. There are 2 versions of the pattern included. The first is the traditional Pinwheel with added quilting and embroidery decorative detail. The second version uses a folded fabric technique that creates a 3-dimensional effect and a "pocket" pinwheel. The entire block is constructed in your embroidery hoop! There are also instructions to create a lap quilt using the "pocket" pinwheel blocks.

Finished size 54in x 54in

Tutorials included

The "Pocket" Pinwheel block requires 2 fabrics

5" (125mm) block uses file 1CQB-PW1a
6" (150mm) block uses file 1CQB-PW1b
8" (200mm) block uses file 1CQB-PW1c

The "Standard" Pinwheel block requires 2 fabrics

5" (125mm) block uses file 1CQB-PW2a
6" (150mm) block uses file 1CQB-PW2b
8" (200mm) block uses file 1CQB-PW2c
