This beautiful Envelope Purse created by Susan Zellers is done completely In-the-Hoop, no extra sewing required. Tutorial and pattern included.

This is fun and easy way to make an accessory for any outfit or just a quick little gift. Use silks and satins with lace embroidery to make a wedding purse or just a fun piece of patterned cotton. This purse is made with only one piece of fabric that is cut 9" wide and 45" long (selvage to selvage), you will want to pick a fabric that does not have a directional design. For this example I tacked on a piece of machine embroidered lace from my Vintage Lace collection, a monogram can be added as well as crystals or bedding.

Purse shown without lace

- Supplies needed:
- Embroidery Machine with at least 7"x11" (180mm x 300mm) sewing field
- 1 piece cut away stabilizer to fit hoop (10" x20")
- 1 piece cutaway stabilizer 8" X 7" for front pocket
- 1 piece decorative fabric 9" x 45" (can be quilt cottons, satins, and light denims cut selvage to selvage)
- 1 piece thin batting 8" x 12" optional
- 1 piece grosgrain ribbon 5" long cut into 2 equal pieces
- Sewing thread to match
- Embroidery thread to compliment
